

New Bijou Theatre, Tampa, Fla.; Pat Chapelle, owner; D Ireland Thomas, manager.—Crowded houses nightly is the rule of this house. Robinson's big circus visit here did not affect us. Brooks and Regis, Florence Hines, Vida Vaughn, Cornelius Chrisholm, Alex. Smith and "Black Sam" are all hot favorites, and score heavily every night. Next week the Ford sisters and Sadie Robinson. Miss Kittie Brown, the pop-coon song singer, issued invitations for a Thanksgiving "spread" in honor of Misses Florence Hines and Vida Vaughn. The guest assembled at an early hour at the cozy residence of Miss Brown, where they found a most beautifully decorated table, set with fifty covers. After participating in a bill of fare that was fit for a king, the guest retired to the parlor, where songs, recitations and dances held forth until the "wee" late hours. Among those present were Florence Hines, Vida Vaughn, Jessie Thomas, the genial Bob Donaldson, Tamer Benjamin, Ed. Smith, Alex. Roach, Wm. Waldorf, Buddie Swain, Marion Brown and many others.
