

Rankin, Friends of M.P. Johnson,

Thank you for the wonderful memorial service. I was glad to have a chance to be with the amazingly diverse groups of people Marsha befriended.

Marsha came to Oscar Wilde Memorial bookshop and had coffee with me on Sundays when I worked there. I was the kind of conservative person that previously had no contact with "someone like Marsha". Marsha changed all that. I am so thankful for my now, deep connection to the drag queens that dare, the dykes that care and all of our places in this community.

Thanks again,

William.
