Daily Newsletter of Fantasia Fair, 1979
Volume 3, Number 4 Tuesday, October 16, 1979

Newsletter Format

The remaining daily newsletters for F.F. will consist only of essential information regarding daily schedules and other matters. Since the newsletters are now mimeographed rather than printed, preparation (especially error correction) is more time-consuming than formerly. There will be one or more special editions of the newsletter to cover matters of interest not directly related to schedules. People submitting information to the newsletter should clearly indicate the date of insertion, if there is a specific such date.

Please save all copies of newsletters, as some information may not be repeated.

The deadline for information to appear on a given day is now is 10:00 a.m. on the preceding day, not 12:30 as formerly. This is so your editors can finish the newsletter in time to attend the seminars.

F.F. TALENT APPEARS AT THE PILGRIM HOUSE

Two Gifford House residents competed in the Pilgrim House Talent Search. Ruthann Moskowitz sang "You're So Vain," and Dorothy Finch captured third prize for rendition of "With His Head Tuck Under His Arm"

SHARON HESS-- A NEAR LIPPER

Sharon lost her first chance ever to receive roses from a guy. Being a Chicago resident, she made the mistake of betting on the Chicago Bears in their game against the New England Patriots with Gene, the owner of the Gifford House. Unfortunately, the Patriots won the game.

A PLEASANT WAY TO END AN EVENING

Julia and Patricia closed the Pied Piper one evening this week and enjoyed some pleasant conversation with some local young persons. As we were sitting in the car preparing to pull away from the curb, we heard a tapping on the window. As Julia rolled down the window, the smiling face of a young man appeared and he said, "You are beautiful people." Wasn't that just great?

SEVERAL F.P. GROUP/CHAPTER LEADERS PRESENT AT F.F

In addition to Ari of Outreach and Virginia from Tri Sigma, there are several leaders of local F.P. groups present at the Fair:

Tri-Sigma:

Pittsburgh, Pa: Patricia Louise
Madison, Ind: Ruthann
Ann Arbor, Mich: Elaine
Allentown, Pa/International Alliance: Glenda
Flint, Mich/Crossroads: Grace
Warren, Ohio/Paradise: Julia
New Hampton, N.H.: Merissa

We are all dedicated to expanding our ranks - to emptying out the closets. So if we can be of help in your getting a local group started (that's two or more people, including you), we would be glad to talk to you about it. For those of you who have never experienced meeting with someone or some group in your local area, I can truly say that you are missing out on a fabulous growth experience.

A THANK YOU FROM TINA

I wish to thank each of you for contributing in memorable and rewarding ways to my learning experience. These past few days have been just great. I leave Fantasia Fair with a better understanding of what it means to be human and I trust a sense of my humanness has made an impression on you too. I thank you for sharing so much of your private worlds with me.....Tina Wheeler, 310 East 46th Street, New York, N. Y. 10017
