

DOUBLE-TOP SIMON WAS

THE GIRLS' DARTS ACE

DARTS queen Gloria kept an amazing secret during a ladies' match at her local . . . beneath her spectacular "double top" she was really a man.

No one twigged that the star player, dressed in a flowing wig and perfect makeup, was 20-year-old baker Simon Milnes.

And as the arrows flew, some admiring glances were also flying in the direction of the busty beauty.

Simon thought up his sensational stunt over a lunchtime drink at the Lamb Inn at Bideford, Devon.

He heard that Linda's Lot, the team run by landlady Linda Emery, were one girl short for the evening match — and volunteered to fill in.

Simon, of Rectory Park, Bideford, borrowed clothes from his mother, hid his hairy legs with dark tights and slipped on a new pair of high heels.

Only his team-mates knew his true identity.

He said yesterday: "I made sure my mother walked me to the pub and I wore a wedding ring in case any blokes took a shine to me.

"I must say I got a number of worrying looks."

Rival

Simon's team-mate Joyce Cook said: "He was incredible.

Afterwards, Linda's Lot confessed their prank to the rival team from the pub just down the road — and gave them the match.

● BRIDES are getting bigger and sexier-looking. The average bust size of wedding dresses being sold this spring has jumped from 34in to 36in.

● Ronald Phillips, boss of a firm of wedding gown makers, said: "Well-rounded figures are back, following a long spell of the beanpole look.

Cheek of bare-skin divers!

● DIVERS who flock to an old wreck are showing a bit too much skin.

● The sight of up to 20 bare bottoms as the skin-divers strip off to change into wetsuits is just too revealing for parishioners at Oban, Argyll.

● Now the Sunday divers are being asked to be more discreet. David Clume of the local community council said: "We just want them to be less revealing."
