Since I bought my personal computer, it has been a million times easier to write. I'm getting a lot done. Am almost finished with a film review of A Man Like Eva for possible publication in Metamorphosis and will be sending it to you in a few days...I felt I should send this ad to you ASAP, hoping I'm not too late for the August issue.

Don't sweat getting permission from Georgia Saunders to reprint my article from The Gateway. No, that publication wasn't copyrighted and permission from me, the author, should be all you need.

Thanks very much for the cartoon by David Kottler. I don't know him and suggest you contact Emmon Wills, since he's the one who sent it to you. He must know David. There sure seems to be a lot of gay F-Ms around all of a sudden! I will take your suggestion and write to Jude Patton re: the discrimination by gender clinics of gay F-Ms for possible discussion at the HBIGDA in September.

Yes, [redacted] did move out here (close to Palo Alto) and attempted to live in the male role. I would rather you got the story from her, but she has returned to the female role and seems to have no regrets about doing so. (Another one bites the dust.) I never see Jude or Emmon, but talked to Steve Dain recently and may go see him for some peer counseling, as this living with a female in my jockey shorts is getting to me again.

So far this year has been a real shit for me. The end of May I went back to Milwaukee for a few days to see my sister (3 years older than I) who has suddenly been leveled with multiple sclerosis. She's in really bad shape, can't walk and is incontinent, though just last year she was a warehouse foreman in a bottling plant, running around with a hard hat on, etc. Just unbelievable.

No, I know nothing about the guy I referred you to who makes penile prostheses. I got his name from a women-oriented marital aids store here in S.F. I'd be interested to know what you find out from him.

Well, Rupert, I want to get this in the mail. Hope you are able to run my ad in the August issue, and I'll be sending that film review soon.

Regards,

Lou

P.S. Can you send me your latest MMRF membership directory?
