

Transgendered People!

Ever felt scared when you went out dressed?

Don't you feel it's time people learned that transpeople are no longer "fair game" on the street?

Ever felt afraid of losing your kids in a custody fight?

Don't you feel it's time the courts learned we can't be treated as parentally-unfit genderqueers?

Ever been harassed on the street, in a bar, in the restroom?

Don't you feel it's time it became safe for ALL of us?

Ever get angry about the brutal rape and murder of transexual Brandon Teena last year?

Don't you feel we should demonstrate at the trial of his accused murderer to demand justice?

Ever been afraid of losing your career and your job just because of who and what you are?

Don't you feel it's time you were protected from employment discrimination?

Ever felt suicidal, depressed, hopeless or overwhelmed?

Don't you feel it's time transpeople started standing up and fighting back with pride?

Are you angry about these things? Upset?
Well, we're thinking that maybe you are.

The Revolution is starting, and you're invited.

We are gathering Saturday, March 18 at IFGE Atlanta Action 1995, for a giant political caucus to start the revolution against gender oppression. No, this doesn't mean we're going to sit talking in hushed tones about politics with our legs crossed. We're going to outline the things that hurt, threaten, oppress us or just plain piss us off, and then we're going to spend the entire day planning specific political actions to start fighting back, contesting our oppression, AND CHANGING THINGS!

This ain't about your Aunt Tillie going on Geraldo. It's about planning, creating and TAKING ACTION to create a better life for you, your friends, those you hold dear, and even transgendered youth. It's about transpeople with pride, and more than that, it's about transpeople WITH ATTITUDE.

We can't do it without you.

Fill out your IFGE Atlanta Action 1995 sign-up form today, and when you do, and attach this notice.

Yes, I'm tired of business as usual. I want a Revolution. Count me in. I promise to bring lots of attitude.

I can also bring the following:
