

ALYN W. HESS

Juneteenth Day 6-19-87

LANDSCAPE ARCHITECT

██████ N. 25th Street
Milwaukee, Wis. 53206
414/██████

Dear Lou,

Your card arrived yesterday. Mark & I went to see the Theatre X production ~~last~~ weeks ago and came away with very mixed feelings & thoughts. I will try to be available to see your presentation. But I maybe scheduled to work that night and will have to switch (if I can) with my co-worker. If I can't get off we can at least get together for a long talk or two over dinner and an evening. I will be very interested to hear how they tracked you down. I suppose they are paying you to come and appear at least travel costs.
I am off today, because I work Saturday but not at my regular library. I will be way out at Mill Road on north 76th Street! It will take me an hour to get there and also back! I volunteered to "work" at Juneteenth day on King Drive, the big Black celebration of the freeing of slaves in Texas. I will be "working" those gorgeous smooth Black men for sure with the acres of smooth brown silk skin to be admired. It is over 90° so they will be bare naked (hope and glistening with sweat too!

See you soon
Alyn