Clan-Na-Gael this evening. Important business.

The General Council will meet to-night in monthly session.

The Chancery Court stands adjourned over to Monday next.

The Bluff City Greys intend engaging in the competitive drill next year.

The Stevens Combination will appear in the Two Orphans at the theater to-night.

There will be no matinee or night performance given at the theater on Saturday next.

The Radical Legislative candidates will indulge in bloody-shirt waving at Assembly Hall to-night.

At the Recorder's Court to-day nothing appeared on the docket but cases of drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

This being the first of November, bill collectors are off of their reservation making raids upon their neighbors.

The Temple of Honor will install its officers elect at the Central Baptist Church on next Friday evening.

The big Democratic rally on next Saturday night will be the grandest political demonstration ever held in this city.

General Maney, candidate for Governor, will address his fellow-citizens at the Greenlaw Opera House on to-morrow night.

The subject of the Bible-reading at the Linden street Christian church this evening will be "Baptism," after which the ordinance will be administered.

The Turner Hall, a well-known German institution on Poplar street, was sold on yesterday by a trustee, and was purchased by Mr. George Bergman.

The Ladies' Christian Association is hard at work trying to establish upon a permanent basis a Magdalen Home at the Commandant's house in the Navy Yard.

The Fifth warders held a lively meeting at the Beal street market last night. Major Sykes, high tax advocate, Capt. W. W. Miller and others addressed the meeting.

Francis Thompson (negro), the connecting link between the sexes, became so ill at the station-house that he had to be sent to the City Hospital for medical treatment.

This is known as All Saints Day in the Catholic and Protestant Episcopal worlds, and in consequence religious services were had in the churches of these respective religious denominations.

The WEEKLY LEDGER contains Mrs. Meriwether's letter on the late Memphis social scandal. But a few copies are left at the courting-room. Price, five cents each.

At the Criminal Court to-day the case of State vs. R. Hunter and L. B. Beurer, indictment for attempting to commit a rape, the defendants were honorably acquitted, the prosecution being proven to have been malicious.

On yesterday at St. Lazarus Episcopal church Dr. L. W. Crampton, of the United States Army, was married to Miss Ella W. Thomas, of this city. Among the attendants was Mr. Hop Johnson, of the Appeal. The happy couple left on a bridal tour.

A batch of vagrants and other prisoners was sent down to the President's Island Work-house to-day to pick cotton, chop wood and perform other work well calculated to impress the "vags" with proper ideas as to what constitutes making an honest living.

Next Tuesday will be a day big with fate for the people of these United States. We advise our readers to vote the straight Democratic ticket, with one exception, and to scratch out the name of James D. Porter, the unworthy candidate for the governorship of the State.

The Traveler's Life and Accident Insurance Company, of Hartford, Connecticut, Lonsdale & Co., agents, has issued a valuable political chart for free distribution. It contains a list of the electoral votes and a well compiled account of the Presidential vote from 1789 to 1872. It is a valuable chart of reference for this Presidential election year.

On Friday night the Democratic Legislative candidates will address their fellow-citizens at the Greenlaw Opera House. Each candidate will upon that occasion express himself as to the proposed repeal or change in the law organizing the Board of Police and Fire Commissioners, which a few scheming ward politicians are advocating on the sly.

Political circles are stirred up around town. The Radical Legislative ticket stands no chance of being elected over its Democratic opponent in this city and county. Dorsey Thomas will no doubt carry Shelby county by a majority over coupon-paying Porter; but outside of this side issue, the Democratic nominees will carry the county by large majorities.

Rumors have it that Esquire P. M. Winters, late convert from negro Radicalism, carries about his person a letter written by Colonel John C. Burch to prove that Dorsey B. Thomas was in former days a "Know-Nothing." General Maney in a speech delivered at Chattanooga recently said, "I believe I am the only candidate before the people who was never a Know-Nothing." In this he charges Governor Porter with being one of the "Know-Nothings" in days past.

The Alabama street Presbyterian church was surrounded by a boisterous and unruly crowd last night, it having been announced that a wedding would be celebrated therein, but the groom failed to come to time in consequence of the opposition of his family to the marriage. The groom disappeared from home declaring that he would commit suicide, and no news has been heard of him since. Those witnessing the scene
