

Who's a funny boy...

BOYS will ... be used to say.

The vague,
Garbo-like expression, the hard anageing make-up
Don't let that fool
you.

But if you still don't recognise the gram-look star, turn to page 3.

The prime of Miss David Bowie

by RICK SKY

THIS dark-haired stunner is pop star David Bowie.

Bowie, 33, who has often fooled friends by dressing as a woman, has never made a secret of his bi-sexuality.

Neither has his ex-wife Angie, who received a £30,000 separation settlement.

Which must all be very confusing for their daughter Zowie, eight.

Angie is now suing for a bigger slice of Bowie's fortune.

Her usual dress is a shirt and jeans.

And of the two Bowie — now a tax-exile in Switzerland — is often the more glamorous.

His former drummer Woody Woodmansey says: "David loves dressing up.

"He would often swan into the room dressed in women's clothes.

"He was very convincing — so convincing that people often wouldn't know it was him."

This picture is taken from a privately made video film shot last year.