My dearest sisters of ETVC,

I am unable to convey properly through the means of this poor letter my gratitude and sincere thanks for the Luncheon given in my honor on May 12. You cannot know how much it means to me to be so highly regarded by members of my own community.

When faced with a terminal illness, it is natural that we sit back and review our lives through the perspective of our accomplishments and contributions to our peers. Your tribute, and the beautiful wall plaque presented to me at the Luncheon, has impressed upon me how important it is to give even a small part of ourselves for the benefit of others, and how our least efforts can impact our world forever. I now have a clearer picture of what more needs to be done in the days and months left me.

ETVC and its predecessors has been a major positive force in my life, and the sincere recognition shown at the Luncheon on May 12 will always be remembered in a warm place in my heart.

With love to all,

Lou Sullivan
